Ten free tips for you as entrepreneur

Start a business, not a startup! The startup is a magical place , it's a place where expenses are someone's else problem.

Startups try to ignore the reality (make a profit). Actual businesses worry about profit from day one.

Be a curator, Stick to what is really essential. It's the stuff you leave out that matters. So constantly look for things to remove, simplify and streamline. Stick to what is truly essential.

Prioritize visually

Intelligence looks for what is known to solve problems. Creativity looks for what is unknown to discover possibilities

Dream big, start small, but most of all start

There may be patterns for the things that succeed, that doesn't mean there's a formula for success.

When we have a clear sense of where we're going , we are flexible in how we get there

The goal is not to be perfect by the end, The goal is to be better today

A true friend is someone with whom protocol is no longer necessary

Marketing is making selling unnecessary
